Riverside High School
GIRLS WHO CODE CLUB
NY38697
CHARTER

ARTICLES OF CLUB CHARTER

Organization Name: Riverside High School Girls Who Code Club

Organization Purpose: Close the gender gap in technology through gender-specific computer science programming.

Meeting Time(s): March 9th, 16th, 23rd, 30th and April 6th. 3:00 pm – 4:00 pm

Advisor: Dr. Daniel A. Sabol

Membership Requirements:

- All grade levels are invited
- Interest and excitement about learning technology
- Available to attend weekly meetings

NOTE: GWC Clubs should remain FREE for all participants

Please sign up at: hq.girlswhocode.com   Use Club Code NY38697
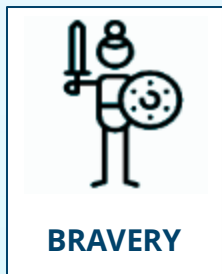

GIRLS WHO CODE CLUB VALUES

SISTERHOOD

Sisterhood means supporting other girls when they're being brave and making ambitious choices. As a girl who codes, you are being brave by learning a subject where you will make mistakes and learn from them.

You are joining a huge group of other Girls Who Code members who will support you in this challenge! They will be there for you when you encounter obstacles, and you will work to be there for them as well.

GWC CLUB CHARTER

GIRLS WHO CODE CLUB VALUES

girls who code

BRAVERY
BRAVERY

Be bold and take risks.

RESILIENCE
RESILIENCE

Learn from setbacks and keep trying.

PURPOSE
PURPOSE

Know what matters to you and how you want to impact your world.

CREATIVITY
CREATIVITY

Seek new ideas and create new solutions.

GIRLS WHO CODE CLUB CHARTER

BRAVERY
looks like...

→ Trying to build new projects even if you aren't sure if you can complete them

→ Working with a new team member you don't know very well

RESILIENCE
looks like...

→ Trying a number of solutions for solving problems because you know you can eventually figure it out
→ Knowing it's ok to not understand, so long as you try to figure it out

PURPOSE
looks like...

→ Using code to create projects that show off your unique ideas and can help inspire others

→ Knowing what matters to you and using your coding skills to teach others

CREATIVITY
looks like...

→ Brainstorming with teammates to find new solutions to problems

→ Seeking out new learning opportunities

GWC CLUB CHARTER