Read Every Day

R.E.D. (Read Every Day) is a part of your child's 20 minute nightly reading homework. By reading with your child as often as you can and asking the provided questions, you will promote and practice fluency and comprehension skills to support their learning.

For homework each night, please do the following:

- Have your child read a selected book
 - Please do not allow your child to struggle through the words. Give him/her a chance to decode it, but if they continue to struggle, tell them the word so they can continue reading.
- Ask your child 3-4 comprehension questions from the list provided
- When your child is able to read the book fluently and correctly, write the title of the book, the date, and your signature on the reading log

Important Information

- One of our goals is for your child to feel encouraged and not discouraged while reading.
- Another goal is for your child to build independence while reading.

I am so eager to witness the excitement as your child's reading skills come together, allowing your child to read to you! Thank you so much for your support! Please feel free to contact me with any questions.
