

Ms. DiNardo's Pre-K Class

All Families Are Different

As we focus on learning about each other through our “All About Me” unit, we are focusing this week on families. While we all come from different families of different sizes and different family members, we know that all families love each other, help each other, and do fun things together.

