

Ms. Vellucci's 2nd Grade self-contained AU class

Our class had been hard at work so far this school year. We completed a unit about beginning a new school year and reading My Cool School. We have been practicing our fine motor skills (writing) and reading. We embrace all types of communication and understanding. You will notice how some student communicated their opinion about school through writing and some used their AAC devices.

