Smart Schools Bond Act (SSBA)

- Approved by New York State voters in a 2014 General Election statewide referendum
- Authorizes $2 billion of general obligation bonds to improve learning and educational opportunities for students throughout New York State.

The screenshot shows the NYSED.gov website. At the top left is the NYSED.gov logo. Below it is a dark red navigation bar with the text "Ed Management Services" and a search box with a "Search" button. Underneath is a grey bar with the text "Smart Schools". The main content area is divided into a left sidebar and a main text area. The sidebar contains a list of links: "Best Practices In Business Operations Of Public School Districts - NYSASBO", "C4E", "Education Law", "Frequently Asked Questions", "Health and Welfare Services", and "New York Codes, Rules and Regulations". The main text area has a breadcrumb trail: "NYSED / P-12 / SOMS / Educational Management Services / Smart Schools". Below the breadcrumb is the heading "Smart Schools" and a paragraph of text: "The Smart Schools Bond Act was passed in the 2014-15 Enacted Budget and approved by the voters in a statewide referendum held during the 2014 General Election on Tuesday, November 4, 2014. The Smart Schools Bond Act (SSBA) authorized the issuance of $2 billion of general obligation bonds to finance improved educational technology and infrastructure to improve learning and opportunity for students throughout the State. The SSBA requires that a Review Board review and approve districts' Smart Schools Investment Plans before any funds may be made available for the program."
