Message from Superintendent Soler

Dear Yonkers Public Schools
Families,

It's been a full and meaningful week across our district and I want to take a moment to share a few highlights that truly stood out.

As previously announced, Let's Talk, a communication tool that gives families a direct way to reach departments like Transportation, Registration, Special Education, and others is available on the District's website.

2025 Career Technical Education
Awards Ceremony*

If you've got a question or concern, this platform is designed to make it easier to get a timely response.

Speaking of access – our new website and mobile app goes live Monday afternoon. The website and mobile app will be everything Yonkers Public Schools in your pocket! It's cleaner, easier to navigate, and built with families in mind. More information to come!

One of the week's most powerful moments came at the Career & Technical Education Awards Ceremony. We honored our students, teachers, and community partners at the Yonkers Arts Studio, with culinary students from Lincoln and Saunders baking for the crowd and Saunders musicians closing the night. Saunders students were also busy lending their design talents to the Yonkers Police and Fire Training Facility. It's a reminder that our classrooms don't end at the school doors.

Earlier this week, our MBK students had the chance to sit down with Dr. John King Jr., former Secretary of Education and current SUNY Chancellor. He shared stories from his new book and left a deep impression on our students about the power of teachers and resilience.

Tonight, we'll gather for Relay for Life at Gorton High School. This year's event is especially meaningful as we honor the life and legacy of Ms. Elaine Shine. Her impact was and still is felt across our district.

Message from Superintendent Soler (Continued)

Thanks for all you continue to do to support our schools. We're building something special together.

CTE Awards: Students, Skills, and Bright Futures

Honoring hands-on learning and career pathways

At the 2025 CTE Awards Ceremony, students, teachers, and partners were recognized for excellence. Culinary students from Saunders High School and Lincoln High School served dessert, and the night closed with a musical performance from Saunders students. It was a great reminder of what hands-on learning can do.
