ABOUT SENATE MAJORITY LEADER ANDREA STEWART-COUSINS

In just her first year as Senate Majority Leader, Andrea Stewart-Cousins led the most productive legislative session in state history. She has been widely recognized as a trailblazer in local and state government and champion for progressive action. In 2012, she became the first woman, and African American woman, to lead a New York State legislative conference. In 2019, she shattered the glass ceiling when her peers elected her as Temporary President and Majority Leader of the State Senate.

This session of our DISTINGUISHED SPEAKER SERIES will be approximately 1½ hours and include time for questions from the audience
