

Use this visual aid to support children with steps for hand washing

Washing hands

An illustration of a hand turning a faucet handle to the right. Water is starting to flow from the faucet. The hand is colored in shades of brown and orange.	Water on
An illustration showing two hands being held under a running faucet. Water is spraying down onto the hands. The hands are colored in shades of brown and orange.	Hands wet
An illustration of two hands being rubbed together. A yellow bar of soap is visible between the hands, and small droplets of water are shown around them. The hands are colored in shades of brown and orange.	Rub hands with soap
An illustration showing two hands being held under a running faucet. Water is spraying down onto the hands. The hands are colored in shades of brown and orange.	Rinse
An illustration of a hand turning a faucet handle to the left. A single drop of water is falling from the faucet. The hand is colored in shades of brown and orange.	Water off
An illustration of two hands holding a rectangular paper towel. The hands are colored in shades of brown and orange.	Dry