Uzair's charismatic and joyful presence is appreciated by all.

SCHOOL 30

Girl: *Veronika Krasniqi

Veronika is an exemplar in all things. As an elementary and middle school student at School 30, Veronika has not only exceeded all of the academic demands made on her but, more importantly and more uniquely, she has taken a deep personal interest in all of her subjects and sought knowledge and understanding of them beyond simple grade level accomplishments into a different stratum. The combination of her intellectual curiosity and academic talent is truly special. While these attributes alone make Veronika worthy of praise and this award, she has a myriad other talents and facets that make her the great person we know. Veronika is kind. She is a great friend, helpful, and conscientious. She has a sense-of-humor far beyond her years and she is often smiling or laughing. Veronika is admired by her peers and teachers alike and is the classroom benchmark for academics, behavior, personal interaction, and occasionally, moral fortitude. When Veronika moves on to high school next year she will leave a great dearth at School 30 and she will be greatly missed by all. We, however, take pride and solace in the fact that Veronika will go on to great things in her life and that she is not throwing away her shot.

Boy: Julian Ortiz

Julian is a young man who shows an interest and love of learning that has suited him well during his academic career. He also, on countless of occasions, helped a variety of his classmates, who were struggling at the time, to better understand the important concepts of the class topic. This example, in addition to his devotion to being the best Vice President that he can be for his class and school, demonstrate Julian's determination to being a valuable contributor to his community. His personable, respectful nature and wanting to succeed are certainly a great addition to any school environment.

PEARLS HAWTHORNE SCHOOL

Girl: Sophia Maron Schaeffer

Sophia is truly a "gem" of a young lady. Just as much as she is bright and hardworking, she is kind and generous. Sophia is the type of person who would go out of her way to help someone in need or to make someone smile. Sophia is a role model for her peers in that she loves to learn and grow. As a consistent Principal's List student, she uses her successes to help tutor her peers during her free time and to participate in a variety of academically enriching programs. These programs include the PEARLS Science Olympiad, Tri-County Science Fair and the PEARLS Science Fair. Additionally, she is a member of the PEARLS Band.

Boy: Nicholas Sanchez

Nicholas Sanchez is a well rounded student. He enjoys engaging in extracurricular activities as well as supporting our school in various academic challenges / competitions. Nicholas is a consistent Principal's List / High Honor Roll student and strives to achieve his best in all that he does. As a "Tech Savvy" individual, Nicholas is always helpful in assisting with technology use in the classroom.

ROBERT C. DODSON SCHOOL

Girl: Jaylene Salazar

Jaylene is an excellent student with strong work ethic who is full of a refreshing, pleasant personality. She consistently puts forth great effort into all of her assignments and is always up for a challenge. In addition to her strong academics, she has established a great rapport with administrators, teachers and her fellow students, and as such, was elected to the Robert C. Dodson School Student Government. Her classmates cited her maturity, leadership qualities and personality for why they thought she would make a good school leader. Jaylene takes great pride in everything she is involved in and always goes above and beyond on any task. She is a great role model who makes a positive impact on our younger students throughout the entire building.

Boy: Warren Jones

As a leader of the Dodson Student Government, Warren helps with coordinating activities within our local community, such as the Pajama drive and food drive. He has helped on the WE School Wide Initiative Program, sent cards to our Veterans and raised money for the Special Olympics. Warren is an outstanding young man and is a notable role model. She is currently the secretary of the student government and plays basketball and swims for the Condors Swim Team.

COMMUNITY SCHOOL 13

Brenda Jiminez

Brenda's involvement in multiple school initiatives and endless dedication to support the school community through either sports or fundraisers revealed how each challenge presented to her was met. Brenda is someone who is always willing to help and works hard to achieve her goals, both academically and socially. She isn't afraid of challenges and is always trusted by faculty and staff to complete a task with responsibility and honesty. Her awards include being Student of the Month, achieving High Honor Roll consecutively in 7th grade and High Honor Roll and Principal's List in 8th grade.

PAIDEIA SCHOOL 15

Brittney Tetteh

Brittney is a delight to have in class and always brings in a smile. She participates during class and enjoys learning. Brittney is always lending a hand to the teachers and her fellow classmates. She often brings relevant and worldly information into the classroom allowing room for discussion with the teacher and her classmates. Brittney asks for help when necessary and knows her role as a student. There has never been a behavioral concern with Brittney as she is always respectful whether to another student or with an authority figure.

SCHOOL 16

Meagan Canosa

Meagan has been a wonderful addition to our school in the two years she has been here. She is helpful, caring, and has a sweet delightful personality. Her dedication to helping others, both in the Philippines and the United States is beyond many students' her age. She is a kind person that helps others when they are in need by donating food and clothes to people who have none.

SCHOLASTIC ACADEMY FOR ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

Nylah Fields

Nylah provides a selflessness and optimism that helps any community thrive. She continually goes out of her way to help new classmates get acclimated to the school's culture, and never fails to lend a helping hand to peers in need of assistance. Whether someone needed help finding their next class or didn't speak a word of English, Nylah was there to lend a helping hand. Through it all, she does it with an infectious enthusiasm that lifts the entire community. She is mature beyond her years and thrives when interacting with peers on a collaborative endeavor. Her impact on the Scholastic Community will not soon be forgotten.

EUGENIO MARIA DE HOSTOS MICRO SOCIETY SCHOOL

Jair Tola

Jair is recognized for his outstanding leadership and determined contributions to our school's program and in the Yonkers community. Since 2014, Jair has been an active member of our school's Micro Society Program as Vice President and President of the Student Government. This year he has taken a different role in the Micro Society Program as a Pre-K Student Mentor. As a mentor, Jair dedicates his recess time working with Pre-K students with their academics at least four times a week. This past summer in 2017, he volunteered at the Yonkers Summer Reading Buddies Program helping younger students read books. Jair's caring attitude and work with younger students is admirable. It is rare to meet a middle school student who has a combination of academic achievement, who is diligent, and thoughtful towards their school and community.

Brianna Rodriguez

Brianna Rodriguez is a wonderful young lady who puts others before herself. As a member of School 23's community, she takes time to help others do their best. Brianna also lends a helping hand to the younger students by participating in special activities here at School 23. Most students help at their school, but what makes Brianna special is she helps outside of school as well. She volunteers her time a lot and one that stood out to me was her volunteering for "Voices for the Voiceless".

CASIMIR PULASKI SCHOOL

Zane Alden Schoenberg

Zane is a wonderful candidate for this award. If anything is needed Zane is the person to find to help get the task completed. His dedication to helping others especially his teachers is so apparent that even his classmates have recognized his supportive nature. He is positive and always willing to give up even his lunch time to assist with a project or help make our school community a better place to attend.

KAHLIL GIBRAN SCHOOL

Gabriel Haynes

Gabriel is a tremendous asset to our school community. Whether it is assisting younger students in the cafeteria or hallway, offering to help a former teacher move things around in her classroom, or watching younger students at night time PTA meetings, he is always an eager volunteer. Gabe is especially passionate about speaking out about Type 1 diabetes and supporting others who have the same condition as him.

WESTCHESTER HILLS SCHOOL 29

Sydney O'Malley

Sydney is President of the Student Council, she has devoted much of her free time to serving the needs of her fellow classmates. Sydney is caring and committed to serving her community and has done so for many years. She has often volunteered to help students in other grades, in aiding them to complete projects, artistic activities and even assisted them in preparing for school wide events. Sydney is kind and caring and is always aware of the needs of others and willing to help students, teachers and staff. Her greatest contribution is her natural ability of being an inspiring leader, she is eloquent and truly magnificent in how she speaks for her classmates and advocates for their needs and vision for our school. Sydney is a confident and strong leader who makes any endeavor seem easy to accomplish.

SCHOOL 30

Sabrina Iacovetta

As a student, Sabrina is able to grasp information quickly and accurately, even the most complex of concepts taught in class and takes her academic success very seriously. She is always ready to participate, help out in any way, and complete any task at hand to her best ability. Sabrina always surprises her teacher with her intellect. She is extremely unique and will excel in any future program that she undertakes.

Sabrina is an extremely compassionate and empathetic person. She is known for her ability to be conscious of how other's feel and help them out in any way possible. She has many friends and is loved by the staff. She walks into the classroom every morning with a smile on her face and positively greets the teachers. She gets along well with all of her teachers and has not been the subject of any complaint. She is an absolute pleasure to have in class.

FAMILY SCHOOL 32

Lalaine Castellon

Lalaine is an exemplary student and young woman. She is the first one to volunteer to show a new student around, a member of the yearbook committee, a Girl Scout and a team captain for several sports (both in and out of school). Lalaine is on the Principal's List and was selected to attend Sarah Lawrence College's Creative Writing Workshop for middle school students. She puts others first and takes pride in her leadership abilities.

MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. ACADEMY

Mariah Ramirez

Mariah has worked beautifully with a new student from the Dominican Republic who speaks little English and struggled transitioning in class. Mariah volunteers to assist the student in and out of class, maintaining her grades as well. Mariah also worked, along with her family, to collect goods for people in Puerto Rico affected by the hurricanes. She worked to prepare boxes, separate goods and organize volunteers to assure they gave to the victims. Mariah is a true leader and giver.

CROSS HILL ACADEMY

Sarah Fermin

Sarah is a selfless student who is ready, willing and eager to help classmates with their academics in every class. She is a valued member of the Cross Hill Student body and volunteers to assist in classroom activities as well as school-wide activities. She has assisted in our fundraising activities through contributions, helped with organizing and advertising, and gave her time. Sarah helps with peers and younger students whenever she is asked.

CEDAR PLACE SCHOOL

Dennis Mejia

Dennis Mejia has served both as a tutor and mentor to younger students during his time at Cedar Place. His willingness to serve on the Safety Patrol further illustrates his commitment to the community. His selection will be a source of pride not only for his family and school but to the City of Yonkers and finally to Pat DiChiaro herself. He prides himself by giving back to the community.

ENRICO FERMI SCHOOL

Dianna Villatoro

Dianna is the epitome of a committed and exemplary student. She is dedicated to making her school and community better. She is currently the President of the school's Student Government. She has served as a cabinet member since 7th grade. Dianna participates in Safety Patrol at school and helps with the younger students. During her lunch, she works on editing the yearbook. She enjoys the photography club, taking pictures of school events and projects.

Felix Urena

Felix is a multitalented young man. He excels in academics, leadership tasks and volunteer work. Felix is an energetic, committed and passionate young man. As a consistent Principal's List student, he works hard to achieve in his academics and to be a true role model for his peers. Last year, he served as Student Government Vice President and worked closely with the student body to fundraise and promote enriching activities for our school. He is also selfless with his time as he tutors his peers in various subjects during his lunchtime. He has volunteered at numerous PEARLS PTA Events as well. As a PEARLS student, Felix serves on various clubs such as the PEARLS Yearbook, All City Band, Coding Club and Science Olympiad. During the summer, Felix volunteers at the Yonkers Riverfront Library for the JCY Reading Buddies Program. Since reading is such a vital part of learning, he feels it is important to enrich our city's youth as much as possible. Clearly, Felix is an asset to not only our school community but to the city of Yonkers.
