Teachers/Staff/Students:

- Mercy University will be here today during 7th period to meet with interested student. Any questions see Mr. Ricart.
- Attention YMA High school students, looking to earn volunteer hours, get involved in some after school activities, have some fun, join YMA’s Eagle Squad. The Eagle Squad is a volunteer organization that supports our YMA sports programs with set up, sound system work, etc. Join us for a brief informational meeting at 12 noon this Thursday in Café B. For more information please see one of our Eagle Squad Captains, Joseph Rabadi, Enya Barrett, Janaye Foster or see Mr. DeMatteo.
- The following H.S. Clubs will meet directly afterschool today:
 - Athletic Homework Help - G25 & G33
 - Senior Siblings - G33
 - YMA Websites and Social Media- 204
 - Publishing - G18
 - Debate - G08
- On Saturday The YMA Boys Varsity Soccer Team picked up their second win of the season by beating the Obama school 8-1. Endrin Prelvukaj, Adam Smith, Ken Delahunty, Evan Cela, Olt Lecaj, Justin Goro, Art Lecaj and Jack Baldwin all contributed with goals or assists. Liam McNally was the first ever eighth grader to score a goal for a Yonkers Public School's Boys Varsity Soccer Team! Randy Guzman made nine saves for the win! Congratulations to Liam and the rest of our Boys Varsity Soccer Team!
- The YMA Lady Eagles Soccer Team defeated Alexander Hamilton yesterday in a 3-2 victory. Goals were scored by Mia Gutierrez, Grace Gleeson and Kate Comar. Assists were made by Grace Gleeson and Kate Comar. Please wish the lady eagles good luck today as they face Yonkers High in the city championship finals!
