Noticing the Good

Roosevelt High School Students
Shine at FBLA Competition in Rochester

A group of talented high school students recently traveled to Rochester, NY, accompanied by Ms. SouSou and Ms. Miller to compete in the Future Business Leaders of America (FBLA) State Leadership Conference.

Representing their school with pride, the students showcased their skills in a range of business-related events, earning top placements among competitors from across the state.

Their hard work, professionalism, and entrepreneurial spirit earned them recognition and awards, highlighting their potential as future leaders in the business world.
