Welcome/Course Description

We are here to give you choices in life. People who can speak and write well open many doors for themselves in life. People who understand where they have come from, where they are, and where they are going in the world, open even more doors for themselves. Why are we here? We are here so you can write an editorial for the newspaper, or even a book. We are here so you can read a map, prepare to vote or even run for offices, and understand the connections in the country and world in which you live. We are here so you can understand technology, create a presentation to your classmates, or win an argument with your brother/sister. We are here so you can read and understand what some of the greatest minds in the world have shared. We are here so you and your great mind can share your thoughts, ideas, emotions and opinions with the world. The skills that you will gain here are some of the most valuable tools you can have.

Topics throughout the year include the European World, European Explorers, Native Americans, Establishment of Colonies in the New World, Dutch and English Settlements in NYS, Life in Colonial America, French and Indian War, American Revolution, Articles of Confederation and the Critical Period, Constitutional Convention, Constitution, NYS Constitution, Early Administrations – The New Republic, Age of Jackson, Manifest Destiny, Causes of the Civil War, and the Civil War in general.
