ROBERT HALMI SR. FILM & TELEVISION ACADEMY

HOLIDAY SEASON '24

December was a month bursting with festive cheer and enriching activities! Students and staff enjoyed a variety of holiday-themed events that brought joy and excitement to the season. As we turn the page to the new year, our students are hard at work preparing for their upcoming Aristocats performance. We're also thrilled to invite you to our second Celebration of Learning, happening on January 30th. Mark your calendars--we can't wait to see you there!

DECEMBER ACTIVITIES

In December, 6th grade students enjoyed a month filled with festive activities and community spirit! They celebrated academic achievements, contributed to the Maria Ferrari Toy Drive, and participated in Holiday Spirit Week. Students also had fun building gingerbread houses and relished the magic of the season with a cozy Polar Express event, complete with hot cocoa and popcorn. It was a month overflowing with excitement, giving, and joy!

9TH GRADE

Notable Moments

In December, 9th grade students were deeply involved in a variety of school-wide events and activities. They explored CTE camera equipment, launched a new podcasting club, and embraced the fun of Holiday Spirit Week. Students delivered Holiday Sing-o-grams, hosted a festive photo booth for all students and staff, and facilitated the Polar Express event for 6th grade, as well as a holiday movie for their own class. They also showcased their creativity in the Deck the Halls competition. It was a month full of student-led initiatives, new experiences, and an abundance of school spirit at RHA!
