

When Seasons Come

Lexile Level: BR-220

When each season comes, it has its own feel. First, winter comes.

It smells like hot chocolate.

It sounds like a feather.

Winter is the cold season when it comes.

Then spring comes. It sounds like a playground.

It looks like a garden.

Spring is the warm season when it comes.

Then summer comes. It looks like a picnic.

It feels like a cool splash.

Summer is the hot season when it
comes.

Now autumn comes. It tastes like sweets.

It sounds like a pile of leaves.

Autumn is the cool season when it comes.